

December 7, 2023

Good morning! It's Jason from 752 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today marks an important day in history, as we remember the events that took place on December 7, 1941, the day of the attack on Pearl Harbor. It's essential to take a moment to reflect on this historical event and the lessons it can teach us about empathy, unity, and resilience.

In the words of Franklin D. Roosevelt, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." On that fateful day, fear and uncertainty gripped our nation, but what followed was a remarkable display of resilience and unity. In the face of adversity, people from all walks of life came together to support one another. Let's remember the importance of standing together, showing empathy for those affected by tragedy, and working towards a more peaceful world. Today, as we go about our day, let's continue to promote a caring, kindness and empathy toward each other.

Thanks for listening have a Triumphant Thursday 😊
