Rise and shine, I.S.201! This is William Chen of class 752 speaking to you for today's Motivational Monday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team!

Today is June 23rd, which marks the last Monday as well as the start of the last week of the school year! As we approach the last days of school, let's seize today and the rest of the week with positivity and joy! We've come a long way this year, as we learned new things, overcame challenges, came to different revelations, and went through both easy and difficult times. From this, we should recognize and appreciate all the accomplishments we've made this year, no matter big or small. Keep in mind that our success isn't just about getting good grades, working hard, or trying our best. Although these qualities are definitely important, what truly matters is how we have grown and nurtured ourselves throughout the year, how we learned from our mistakes and how we grew from our triumphs. Let's further embrace positivity with this quote from Eleanor Roosevelt, where she said, "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." Believe in your ability to make another come true and to keep embracing positivity and happiness for I.S.201!

Thanks for listening and have a Moving onto the Next Chapter

Monday 😊
