Good morning! It's Irene Qiu from 731 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Did you know that today is National Re-Giving Day. The purpose of it is to promote regifting throughout the country. Re-gifting is the practice of giving someone else something that was originally intended for another person or purpose, frequently in the form of a brand-new gift.

Regifting has a bad reputation. But let's change it right now. The SEAL Team believes that if you have a gift, don't give it to someone else—donate it to a good cause instead. A child's toy or clothing for the homeless. For individuals who get it, your regift would mean a lot and be meaningful.

Thanks for listening have a Thoughtful Giving Thursday 😊
